

How does being Muslim make a difference to a family?

Allah sent messages to the prophets of Islam. Mohammad (pbuh) was the first prophet to hear and understand what the message meant. This is called the 'Revelation'.

Muslims do not draw any picture of Allah or Mohammad (pbuh) as they believe they are so special and beyond all human understanding.

ISLAMIC VALUES
 THERE IS NO GOD BUT ALLAH
 PRAISE AND THANK ALLAH SWT
 BE KIND TO OTHERS
 RESPECT YOUR PARENTS
 LOVE EACH OTHER
 HAVE FAITH
 SET A GOOD EXAMPLE
 BE HONEST
 VISIT THE SICK AND ELDERLY
 GIVE TO THE NEEDY
 BE PATIENT
 SAY BISMILLAH ALHAMDULILLAH
 HOLD STRONG TO SALAT
 MAKE DUA
 FOLLOW THE SUNNAH
 READ THE QURAN

What are the most important core values for a Muslim? Are there any similarities to Christian or our school values?

What is the most important core value for humans in a happy society?

We all have special people in our life but who are the most important for Muslims?

During Mohammad's (pbuh) life he received several 'revelations' from Allah and they created the holy book called the Qur'an. Every copy of the book is exactly the same as it the word of God and is written in Arabic.

All names are special and have a meaning. Do you know what your name means? We will learn about what happens when a Muslim baby is born, how they are named and how it is celebrated.

Key Vocabulary

Prophet	message	revelation	Jibreel	recite	Qur'an
preach	naming	ceremony	Aqiqah	blessing	Adhan
values	pbuh	declaration	Arabic	scripture	messenger